A TASTE FOR THE MAGNIFICENT

LUXURY PORCELAIN IN 18TH CENTURY EUROPE AND ENGLAND

CERAMIC COLLECTORS
SOCIETY

The Ceramic Collectors Society celebrates its 70th Anniversary in September 2019. To mark the occasion, we have organised a one-day seminar entitled;

A TASTE FOR THE MAGNIFICENT LUXURY PORCELAIN IN 18TH CENTURY EUROPE & ENGLAND.

Our internationally renowned speakers are;

Dr Matthew Martin from the University of Melbourne and Mr Errol Manners, a specialist in European ceramics, based in London.

Dr Matthew Martin, Lecturer, Art History and Curatorship at the University of Melbourne, is well known to The Society. Most recently in August 2018 with a lecture entitled 'Cobalt Cargoes, Asian cobalt decorated ceramics and their early European imitations.'

Mr Errol Manners was a popular speaker at our 60th Anniversary Seminar at the Powerhouse Museum in September 2009. He gave lectures on the 'secret' of Meissen porcelain and an in depth look at Augustus the Strong as a collector.
